

DALLAS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

100 YEARS, 100 STORIES SCAVENGER HUNT

Directions: Complete these statements by viewing the exhibits in the Hall of State.

1. John Knott's most famous character, " _____," was a champion for government honesty, low taxes, and property ownership.
2. During the Civil War, doctors performed approximately _____ amputations.
3. The Dallas Nine turned to the _____ and _____ of the Southwest for artistic inspiration.
4. A wooden statue of the Virgin Mary, infant Christ, and two crucifixes are from the _____ Mission in San Antonio.
5. Charles Franklin "Frank" Reaugh is best known for his paintings of Texas _____ and landscapes of the American Southwest.
6. Tom Landry flew over _____ missions over Germany as a copilot in B-17 bombers with the Eighth Air Force.
7. Julien Reverchon was a noted _____ who taught at the Baylor University College of Medicine and Pharmacy.
8. On March 1, 1836, delegates met at _____ to write the Texas Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the Republic of Texas.
9. The first issue of the _____ was published on October 1, 1885.
10. Fashion designer _____ designed seven outfits for Braniff Airlines between 1965 and 1977.
11. Ann Chase was known as the "Heroine of _____" for helping arrange the city's peaceful surrender in 1846.

Continued on page 2.

DALLAS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

100 YEARS, 100 STORIES SCAVENGER HUNT

Directions: Complete these statements by viewing the exhibits in the Hall of State.

12. The military orders known as the “Juneteenth Document” were issued by Major General G. _____ in Galveston, TX, on June 19, 1865.
13. In 1919 Jessie Daniel Ames became the founder and first president of the state League of Women _____.
14. In a letter dated April 21, 1836, Sam Houston described the use of the battle cry “ _____ ” on the Battlefield of San Jacinto.
15. The 1936 Texas Centennial Exposition helped buffer Dallas from the _____, created over 10,000 jobs, and gave the local economy a $50 million boost.
16. Photographer Ron St. Angelo spent more than thirty years documenting the history of the Cowboys, earning _____ Super Bowl rings.
17. Sarah Horton Cockrell was one of the principal _____ and benefactors of the city during the 19th century.
18. The Spanish quicksilver galleons, “Conde de Tolosa” and the “Nuestra Senora de Guadalupe,” sank on their way to _____.
19. Tex Schramm was a leading force in the AFL-NFL merger that led to what became known as the _____.
20. The only remaining items from Col. James Fannin’s uniform are his _____.
21. Mae Belcher was a self-proclaimed fortune hunter willing to take risks and held her own in the traditionally male-dominated _____.
22. In 1968 Dr. John Leslie Patton became the first African American _____ in the Dallas Independent School District.

Thanks for visiting the Dallas Historical Society’s 100th Anniversary Exhibit.

